Schedule A to Bylaw 1027-23

Code of Conduct for Advisory and Task Force Committee Members

The effective operation of democratic local government requires that persons appointed by City Council to its Advisory Committees and Task Forces be independent, impartial, and responsible through Council to the people of Beaumont. This Code of Conduct articulates the expectations for Advisory Committee and Task Force members so that they may carry out their entrusted duties with impartiality and dignity, recognizing that the function of the Advisory Committee or Task Force is service to their community and the public.

Advisory Committee and Task force members will:

- 1 Govern their conduct in accordance with the requirements and obligations set out in the municipal legislation of the Province of Alberta and the bylaws and policies of the City of Beaumont.
- 2 Act in a manner that demonstrates fairness, respect for individual differences and opinions, and an intention to work together for the common good and in furthering the public interest.
- 3 Treat one another, Councillors, Administration, and members of the public with courtesy, dignity, and respect and without abuse, harassment, bullying or intimidation.
- 4 Not interfere in matters of Administration, which fall within the jurisdiction of the Chief Administrative Officer.
- 5 Not use confidential information resulting for the personal profit of themselves or any other person.
- 6 Not communicate confidential information to anyone not entitled to receive it.
- 7 Not use their position to secure special privileges, favours, or exemptions for themselves or any other person.
- 8 Respect the Mayor's role as the city's spokesperson and not claim to speak on behalf of Council or the City unless expressly authorized by Council motion to do so.
- 9 Preserve the integrity and impartiality of their Advisory Committee or Task Force and of Beaumont Council.
- 10 For a period of six months after leaving an Advisory Committee or Task Force, abide by the ethical standards of conduct listed above, except those related to confidential information and speaking on behalf of the City, which shall apply in perpetuity.

As appointments to Council Committees are at the pleasure of Council, Council may revoke an appointment for any reason, including if it believes that an Advisory Committee or Task Force member has breached this Code of Conduct.

Advisory Committee or Task Force members are encouraged to seek advice from the Chair of their Advisory Committee or Task Force or from their Administrative Representative if in doubt about a course of action involving their work on the Advisory Committee or Task Force.
